

水原科學大學課程大綱

1. Practical Chinese Conversation: This course provides the practical Chinese conversation skills for the students who learned beginner, intermediate, and advanced Chinese conversation, which helps student thinking and talking in Chinese naturally.
2. English Conversation and Essay Writing 4: This advanced-level course is an introduction to the English language, with a heavy emphasis placed on effective oral communication. This course also prepares students for college-level writing. Students learn how to organize multi-paragraph essays with an introduction, body and conclusion. Various types of essays, such as persuasive, and comparison and contrast using source documentation, are included.
3. ESL3: As this course makes students exercise listening, writing, and reading, students will have ability not only to speak using basic sentence but to generate new sentence properly.
4. Korean Language1: This is an introductory level 'Korean Language' class designed to train the foreign students to have the moderate Korean reading skills required for completing a college course. Students will also become familiar with the fundamental system of pronunciation and sentence structure of Korean.
5. Korean Language2: This is an introductory level 'Korean Language' class designed to train the foreign students to have the moderate Korean writing skills required for completing a college course. Students will also become familiar with the Korean words, verbs suffixes, etc. and practice writing the sentence related to the subject.
6. Korean Language3: This is an introductory level 'Korean Language' class designed to train the foreign students to have the moderate Korean speaking skills required for completing a college course. Students will also practice speaking for various situations such as phone call, interests, food, transportation, tour, and asking and answering the questions.
7. Korean Society: You will learn the status and phenomena of modern and ancient Korean society to help a basic understanding of Korean society.
8. Korean Conversation2: The Korean conversation skills of Foreign students will be improved to help communication and mutual exchange.